

Suicide and Faith

The Presence of Spirituality in the Darkness

September 26th, 2018 • 6:30-8:00 pm

Fellowship Hall, First Baptist Church

30 Pierce Street, East Greenwich

The Interfaith Counseling Center, The First Baptist Church and the EG Opioid Task Force have joined together to offer this rich panel discussion about faith, spirituality, religion and the devastating darkness of suicide. Join us to discuss the tools of prevention that faith, spirituality and religion can offer as well as the perspectives of response supporting families, communities and individuals. Our guest panelist will be from various faith traditions and the mental health profession.
