

THE UNITED STATES ATTORNEY'S OFFICE INVITES YOU TO ATTEND AN LGBTQ+ UNITED AGAINST HATE WORKSHOP

8:45 a.m. – Check-in, coffee, meet and greet.

9:00 a.m. – Introduction by David Neill and opening remarks by United States Attorney Zachary Cunha.

9:15 a.m. – Presentation by Assistant United States Attorney Kevin Love Hubbard

- Discuss hate crimes, hate incidents, and provide examples.
- Discuss the importance of reporting.
- Discuss prosecutions.

10:00 a.m. – Presentation by FBI Special Agent Pepper Daigler.

- Discuss the types of investigations being investigated in Rhode Island.
- Discuss how and where to report hate incidents and crimes.

10:20 a.m. - Group discussions – Ask volunteers to share their concerns.

- Introduction to the South County Regional Coalition.
- Introductions and opportunities to be heard.
- What actions can we take? How can we unite as a community?

11:00 a.m. – Workshop ends, but discussions can continue until noon.

HATE CRIME – A criminal offense motivated by a person(s) BIAS against race, religion, disability, ethnic or national origin, sexual orientation, gender or gender identity.

Location: NEW ENGLAND INSTITUTE OF TECHNOLOGY
ROOM S-330 (Third fl) One New England Tech Blvd., East Greenwich, RI

When: TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 15, 2022, 9:00 AM - 11:00 AM

To register email Community Engagement & Crime Prevention Coordinator David Neill at David.Neill@usdoj.gov or 500-3416.