

Examples of Grant Writing Resources for Rhode Island

Foundation and Corporate Funding Sources

The websites below offer free information, as well as support and resources available for purchase.

The Foundation Center: <http://foundationcenter.org>

Grant resource centers sites around the state, and in nearby states, that provide free access to a searchable database of comprehensive foundation grants:

Providence Public Library	Providence	RI
Public Library of New London	New London	CT
Oak Bluffs Public Library	Oak Bluffs	MA
Morse Institute Library	Natick	MA
Worcester Public Library	Worcester	MA
Newton Free Library	Newton	MA
Rockville Public Library	Vernon	CT
Boston Public Library	Boston	MA
Cape Cod Community College	West Barnstable	MA
Russell Library	Middletown	CT

The Grantsmanship Center: <https://www.tgci.com/home>

- The top giving foundations in Rhode Island: <https://www.tgci.com/funding-sources/RI/top>
- The Rhode Island Foundation, the state's Community Foundation: <http://www.rifoundation.org>
- Information on corporate funding sources in Rhode Island: <https://www.tgci.com/funding-sources/RI/corporate>
- Summaries of successful proposals on a variety of health related topics, including substance abuse: <https://www.tgci.org/propSubjects.asp?subject=MHA-1>
- Basic information on grant writing: <https://www.tgci.com/articles/getting-grant-101>

Grant Writing

- Grant Space is the companion site to the Foundation Center and is full of free, easy-to-understand information on developing grant proposals: <http://grantspace.org/Skills>